Results for FY2022 2Q (achievement rates)

Net sales
Although the sales of food products and infectious disease prevention products (air disinfecting products, alcohol disinfection, hand soap, and masks) fell short of the plan due to the reaction to the special demand in the previous year, the plan for dispensing pharmacy sales was achieved as a result of the normalization of outpatient visits and the increase in the number of stores with dispensing pharmacy, and the overall results were almost as expected.

Gross

Gross profit in dispensing improved due to the normalization of outpatient visits, covering a reactionary decline in infectious disease prevention products. In the second half of the previous fiscal year, recruitment of qualified personnel was strengthened. The effect of measures to improve efficiency in personnel costs appeared in the second quarter.
margin
Almost as planned, 99.4\% compared to the plan

welcia

Overall

MASAYA

Sales of existing stores grew $\mathbf{- 0 . 5 \%}$ due to the reaction to the previous year's special demand for food products and infectious disease prevention products (alcohol disinfection, air disinfection products, hand soap, and masks).
The growth rate of existing stores in the first half of the fiscal year was $2.0 \%$ as a result of $13.3 \%$ growth rate of existing dispensing stores in the second quarter due to the normalization of outpatient visits and the increase in the number of stores with dispensing pharmacy.
In the same period of the previous year, stores in shopping malls were closed due to the spread of COVID-19, and the sales growth rate of existing stores is calculated with stores opened in the same month of the previous year.

Composition ratio of sales by category

Sales of infective disease prevention products declined, but sales of PCR testing kits and antipyretic analgesics associated with vaccination were strong.
Sales of insect repellents, insect bite reliever, and insecticides were stagnant.

Dispensing
Sales increased substantially because of an increase in the number of prescriptions due to the normalization of outpatient visits and an increase in the number of new stores with dispensing pharmacy (net increase of 104 stores from the end of the previous fiscal year)
Cosmetics

Makeup products continued to be sluggish, but skincare products, high-priced haircare and body care products remained strong.
Sales of foods were strong because sales promotion measures were implemented as planned, despite the reaction to the last year's special demand.

Others

Alcohol sales were brisk as demand for drinking at home increased because people tended to avoid eating out.

Results in the dispensing sector (in Japan)

In the same period of the previous year, the unit price of prescriptions increased and the number of prescriptions decreased owing to the reduced visits and longer prescription days due to the impact of COVID-19. However, in this first half of the fiscal year, the unit prices of prescriptions decreased and the number of prescriptions increased, leading to the normalization of outpatient visits.
Despite the NHI drug price revision, we made efforts to improve patient services and promoted acquisition of dispensing technical fees (additional fees of generics and regional system), resulting in the gross margin of $34.9 \%$.
